

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

In re Terrorist Attacks on September 11, 2001	03 MDL 1570 (GBD)(SN) ECF Case
---	-----------------------------------

This document relates to:

Estate of John P. O'Neill, Sr., et al. v. Al Baraka Investment & Development Corp. et al., 04-cv-1923 (GBD) (SN)

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING CLASS CERTIFICATION AND RELATED RELIEF

Upon consideration of Plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification and Related Relief, dated January 15, 2020, the Memorandum of Law and Affidavits filed in support, and the entire record herein, the Court finds that:

1. The class satisfies the numerosity requirement in that joinder of all Class Members, at least 5,130 people, is impracticable;
2. There are questions of law and fact that are common to the O'Neill Plaintiffs and to the Class Members. Specifically, questions related to the alleged material support provided by defendants named in the above-referenced matter (the "al Baraka Defendants") in the form of planning, funding, and executing the September 11, 2001 attacks;
3. Common questions predominate over any questions affecting only individual members in that almost all issues litigated in this case over the past sixteen (16) years are applicable to all Class Members, and almost all issues to be litigated in the future likely will apply to all Class Members;
4. The claims of the Estate of John P. O'Neill, Sr., Christine I. O'Neill, John P. O'Neill, Jr., Carol A. O'Neill, the Estate of John F. O'Neill, and the Estate of

Dorothy A. O'Neill arising from the al Baraka Defendants' alleged provision of material support to al Qaeda, relied upon to plan, fund, and execute the September 11, 2001 attacks, are typical of the claims of the Class Members;

5. Christine I. O'Neill, John P. O'Neill, Jr., and Carol A. O'Neill (collectively, the "O'Neill Class Representatives"), will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class;
6. The O'Neill Class Representatives have not only indicated a willingness and an ability to represent the Class Members, they have engaged Jerry S. Goldman, Esq. of the firm Anderson Kill P.C. to represent them in this matter. Counsel chosen is competent to represent the class fairly and adequately in this litigation; and,
7. A class action is superior to other methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. By combining the Class Members with the many plaintiffs in the Multidistrict Litigation, In re Terrorist Attacks on September 11, 2001 (S.D.N.Y.), No. 03-cv-1570 ("MDL"), this Court can adjudicate the Class's claims and the MDL Plaintiffs' claims with the aid of the exact same discovery, motion practice, and trial proceedings.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification and Related Relief is GRANTED; it is further

ORDERED that:

1. This matter is certified as a class action under Rule 23(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure;
2. The Class is defined as

10. Subject to defendants being afforded discovery in the same scope and manner as previously conducted, and the opportunity to be heard, Plaintiffs are granted
 - a. Leave to substitute any nominated Class Representative that is deemed inadequate with alternate Class Representatives;
 - b. Leave to proffer additional or alternative Class Representatives should it be deemed necessary;
11. Any judgment in this action, whether or not favorable to the class described above, will include and affect all members of the class described above;
12. The type, content and manner of class notice will be determined on _____;
13. Plaintiffs shall make proposals for the contents and manner of giving notice of the pendency of the class action under Rule 23(c)(2)(B) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and for the responsibility for paying for the notice. Those proposals must be filed with the Court, and served on all parties to the action who have appeared in the action to date, no later than _____. Any supporting briefs or affidavits concerning the proposed form of, manner of, and responsibility for paying for notice must be filed and served at the same time. All other parties to the action may make counterproposals and submit briefs and affidavits on the propriety of, the form of, manner of, and responsibility for paying for notice.

These materials must be filed with the Court and served on all parties who have appeared in the action to date, that are not in default, no later than
_____.
